Understanding Christianity

Creation

Who made the world?

The Christian Creation Story

On the first day, God made light. He saw that the light was good. He split the light and the dark. He called these day and night.
He saw that it was good.

On the second day, God split the water and the sky.
He saw that it was good.

On the third day, God parted the waters to create the dry ground. He called these land and sea. God made the land sprout with plants and trees.
He saw that it was good.

On the fourth day, God created two big lights. He made the sun for the day and the moon for the night. He also made the stars.
He saw that it was good.

On the fifth day, he filled the waters with fish and the skies with birds.
He saw that it was good.

On the sixth day, God made all sorts of animals to fill the land. God saw that it was good. Then, God created man and woman and made them to be like him.
God saw that his creation was very good.

On the seventh day, God rested from all of his hard work. He blessed the day and said it was holy.
