

Year 3 Maths Stem Sentences

___ tens and ___ ones is equal to ___ tens and ___ ones.

There are ___ hundreds in ___.

The number ___ is made up of ___ hundreds, ___ tens and ___ ones.

If the whole is ___ and one part is ___, the other part is ___.

The number ___ can be partitioned into ___, ___ and ___.

1 hundred can be exchanged for ___ tens, then 1 ten can be exchanged for ___ ones.

There are ___ groups of ___ in ___.

When the numerator and denominator are the same, the number is equal to ___.

When the denominator is ___, the whole is divided into ___ equal parts.

If I make a ___ turn anti-clockwise, I will be facing ___.

There are ___ right angles in a ___ turn.

The shape is a ___ because it has...

There are ___ centimetres in ___ metres.

The perimeter of a shape is...

Equilateral triangles have ___ equal sides.

The time is ___ because...